CONSENT TO USE INFORMATION IN OTHER CLASS ACTIONS

I want to receive emails about other similar class actions in Canada about computer components.

What are the other computer component class actions?

There are other similar class actions ongoing in Canada relating to price fixing of other computer components involving one or more of the Class Counsel law firms. You may also be a class member in these other lawsuits involving:

- Optical disc drives, between 2005 and the present; and
- Lithium ion rechargeable batteries, between 2002 and 2012.

Whether you are eligible to claim in the listed class actions will depend on the outcome of those lawsuits and the terms of any court orders or settlements in those lawsuits.

More information about these lawsuits, and the lawyers who are class counsel in them, is available at www.cfmlawyers.ca/class-actions.

What information will we keep for the other computer component class actions?

We would like to keep your name and contact information to send you information about these other lawsuits so that if you are eligible, you can make a claim. We will keep your information secure.

What am I agreeing to?

If you check the box saying that you want to receive emails about other computer component class actions, you will be agreeing to the following terms:

- The Claims Administrator (RicePoint) keeping your name and contact information and providing it to the lawyers who act as class counsel in the lawsuits listed above solely to provide you with notice of these class actions.
- If another company is appointed as administrator in the listed class actions, your information will be provided to that company to be used solely to provide you with notice of that class action.
- Unless you write to the Claims Administrator at the address below to withdraw your agreement, your name and contact information will be kept until the last of the listed lawsuits is completed, at which time it will be destroyed by any law firm or claims administration firm that has it.
- For your information to be used in the listed class actions, the courts in those class actions must approve that use.
- Whether you are eligible to claim in the listed class actions will depend on the outcome of those lawsuits and the terms of any court orders or settlements in those lawsuits.

You may write to the following at any time to withdraw your agreement:
Canadian SRAM Class Action Claims Administrator,
P.O. Box 3355, London, ON N6A 4K3

ACCURATE CLAIMS PROCESSING TAKES A SIGNIFICANT AMOUNT OF TIME.
THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE.

Reminder Checklist:

1. Please sign the above declaration.
2. Keep a copy of your claim form.
3. If you move, please send the Claims Administrator your new address.

Privacy Statement

All information provided by the Claimant is collected, used, and retained by the Claims Administrator, Class Counsel and their agents pursuant to the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) for the purposes of administering the Canadian SRAM Class Action Settlement Agreements, including evaluating the Claimant's eligibility status under the Settlement Agreements. The information provided by the Claimant is strictly private and confidential and will not be disclosed without the express written consent of the Claimant, except in accordance with the Settlement Agreements, distribution protocol or orders of the courts.
